

Capitol Classroom

In-person Learning for Home School Students

CURRICULUM-BASED SESSIONS | WWW.VISITTHECAPITOL.GOV/STUDENTS-TEACHERS

Programs for Home School Students

- Curriculum-based sessions available for individual students and small groups of students (A minimum number is not required for these sessions)
- Educators will lead programs in-person at the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center
- Three different topics for different ages and grades
- Sessions include a 1-hour tour of the U.S. Capitol
- Programs will be booked first come, first served. There will be a limit of 60 students per program
- Following the in-person program, participants can visit Exhibition Hall and The Democracy Lab, which is a public learning space designed for younger visitors

TO REGISTER: Please email your dates and program requests, including the number and ages of students, to Education@visitthecapitol.gov

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2024 | 10 A.M. - 11 A.M.

What is the Capitol?

Students engage with the history and architecture of the U.S. Capitol and the fundamentals of how Congress works. For elementary and middle school students, 30 minutes.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2024 | 9:30 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.

VOTE!

Students take on the roles of members of Congress to consider a historical issue. A growing city needs a new water source. The easiest and cheapest source is a river in a national park. Should the city be allowed to dam the river and use the water for its citizens? Students will hear testimony from both sides, weigh conflicting points of view, and vote. For middle and high school students, 60 minutes.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2024 | 9:30 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.

Constitutional Convention

Students take on the roles of delegates at the Constitutional Convention of 1787 and analyze the debates and compromises that created the U.S. government. For middle and high school students, 60 minutes.

U.S. CAPITOL
visitor center